

ALL THE RAGE BACK HOME

When she went, "hey love come over"
My head abounds
Oh the feeling
And she wept "hold me again", I made no sound
Oh, the beating
And she swore love is never done
So easily
And we went over again, my head abounds
Oh, the feeling

She said you don't need time
Be tame, you won't meet your mate inside
My faith won't lie
He said you don't need mine
Behave, you wanna leave my lady lovers
Of my eighteen summers alone
She said, you don't read minds
Be patient, you won't leave me shaking Leave me shaking

I keep falling, maybe half the time,
maybe half the time
I keep falling, maybe half the time,
maybe half the time
But it's all the rage back home, all the rage

When she said, "love come over" my head abounds
Oh, what feeling
She said, "you oughtta refine"
Be paid you're gonna see my face in lights
My faith won't lie
But my sweet, you don't need time
Come away and just say you'll love me, just say you'll love me alone
She said you don't read minds
Be patient, you won't see me shaking
You have been mistaken

I keep falling, maybe half the time, maybe half the time
But it's all the rage back home (2x)
